FATALITIES IN MINES.

Twenty-Four Persons Perished Under the Ground.

SOME ARE RESCUERS.

On Account of the Deadly Gas It
Was Impossible For Any Further Efforts to Be Made Toward Saving Men.

Fire Creek, W. Va., March 20.—In the two explosions that occurred in the Red Ash and Rush Run mines at least twenty-four men were killed, eleven of the dead being members of a rescue party, who were caught by the second explosion in the Rush Run mine. Eight miners were at work in the Rush Run mine and five in the Red Ash mine when the first explosion occurred. Five or six hours later a party of eleven rescuers entered Rush Run mine to locate the dead. They probably had gone back 2000 feet when the second explosion occurred and it is positively known all were dead, as there was no possible chance for their escape.

After the first explosion miners from neighboring mines rushed to the ill-fated mine in an effort to save their comrades. On account of the gas it was considered unsafe to enter the mine. The rescuers had gone about 2000 feet into the mine when the second explosion occurred, or less than half the distance to where the miners had been working when the first explosion occurred.

RUSSIANS RETREAT.

Everything Continues to Be in Favor of the Japanese.

Fusan, March 20.—Everything now appears to be in favor of the Japanese. They have a magnificent army in the highest of spirits which is rapidly recuperating from the effects of the battle and fully equipped with all necessities for the Manchurian campaign, including great quantities of supplies, together with several lines of communication and the best season of the year before them.

The gain of the strongest natural position on the entire railroad, where much money and labor was expended in defenses under General Kuropatkin's personal direction without a battle, was hardly expected. All indications point to a continuance of the retreat of the Russians to Harbin.

The Russian army continues its northern retreat, the Japanese following. They occupied Fakoman, to the northwest of Tie Pass. Russian cavalry camped three miles south of Kaiyuan. Large Russian columns are retreating toward this place from the southwest. The natives report that they are not stopping there, where the hills make a defense possible.

The Russian retreat became more disorganized after the storm. During the first day the Russians buried their dead but since then have left the dead wherever they fell. Tuesday the Russians made an attempt at resistance in entrenched places north of the Hun river, but abandoned them after they had been shelled two hours.

General Kuroki's army captured the colors of the Fifth regiment of rifles. The colors were inscribed as having been presented to the regiment by the emperor in 1834. Most of the captured organizations succeeded in bearing their standards before surrendering. A few prisoners are secured daily.

It is reported that during General Kuropatkin's resistance at Tower hill on the first day's battle he was slightly wounded by an eleven-inch shell, which fell near him.

The Chinese officials receive the Japanese generals and soldiers and banners at most of the large towns entered.

Kuropatkin's New Job.

St. Petersburg, March 20.—It is stated on high authority that at General Linevitch's request the emperor has appointed General Kuropatkin commander of the First army and that he has assumed command.

B'NAI B'RITH.

Quintennial Session of Grand Lodge
Convenes at New Orleans.

New Orleans, March 20.—The constitutional grand lodge Independent Order B'Nai B'Rith was called to order in quintennial session by President Simon Wolf of Washington, D. C. Stirring addresses of welcome were delivered by Governor Blanchard for the State, Assistant District Attorney Waldo for the city and by Charles F. Buck for the Masonic fraternity, which loaned its temple for the meeting. Joseph Hirsch of Vicksburg, Miss., was made temporary chairman. The credentials committee reported, giving Roumania a proxy vote, but denying a vote to Austria. Permanent organization was taken up. Godchaux A. Levi of Victoria, Tex., was made permanent chairman as a tribute to Leo H. Levi, its lamented leader, who would have presided. Emanuel Yertz of New York was made permanent secretary. The meeting was taken up with preliminaries.

RUMORED CONTROL.

Colorado and Southern Said to Have Fort Worth and Denver.

Baltimore, March 20.—The Manufacturers' Gazette contains this: From Texas lately came a report that the Colorado and Southern had gained control of the Fort Worth and Denver City railway and that an extension would be built from Fort Worth to Galveston. It is further stated that the Trinity and Brazos Valley railway, built two years ago from Cleburne to Mexia, and which is now surveying from the latter point toward Houston, will form part of this gulf connection, and this theory is doubtless made the more plausible because the Trinity lines has already declared its intention of building from Cleburne toward Fort Worth.

BURNED BRIDGES.

Russians Did This and a Number of Buried Guns Found.

Washington, March 20.—The Japanese legation received the following telegram from Tokio:

"At 4 a. m. on March 19 our detachment occupied Kaiyuan, twenty miles north of Tie Pass. The enemy afterward attempted a counter attack, but was repulsed. The enemy burned bridges on the main road south of Kaiyuan and also destroyed part of the railway bridge. A number of Russian guns were found buried near Mukden."

No Further Fighting.

St. Petersburg, March 20.—A dispatch from General Linevitch, dated March 19, 9 p. m., says: "Commander of the Second army reports he had no further fighting. No reports have been received from the First or Third armies. I have inspected troops which arrived from Russia. They are in excellent spirits and good health."

Dragoons Depart.

Borizce, European Russia, March 20.—Three squadrons of Dragoons started for Berezaina, where armed Jews are reported to have killed the chief of police and a number of his assistants.

MESSENGER ATTACKED.

Party Who Assaulted Him Formerly Held a Like Position.

Chattanooga, Tenn., March 20.—Mal Pruett, a Southern Express company messenger on Southern train No. 35, leaving here for Memphis at 8:10 o'clock Monday, was assaulted in his car at Lookout Station, a few miles out, by Will Thomas, a former express messenger. Thomas claims the assault was the result of a personal difficulty, but Pruett alleges that robbery was the motive. Pruett was struck in the head with a heavy piece of timber and is now in the hospital. He states that of packages of money and a package of vouchers were missing after he was assaulted. After striking Pruett on the head Thomas applied the emergency brake and jumped from the train. He was captured and put in jail here. The affair is a complicated one and Southern Express company officials decline to give out any statement about it further than to say the matter is being investigated.

RAPIDLY RISING.

High Stage of Water Reported at Allegheny, Pa.

Pittsburg, Pa., March 20.—The water stage in Allegheny at 9 o'clock Monday morning was twenty-five feet and rapidly rising. Preparations for a flood were being made, as a stage of thirty or more feet was predicted. Railroads and other business affected by floods had ample warning and preparations were made accordingly. Up to the middle of last week heavy snows remained in the upper 250 miles of the Allegheny valley and tributaries and high temperatures of the past week melted the snow, and the warm rain of Sunday caused flood conditions from the head waters to this city. Lowlands are submerged and mills and factories on the river fronts forced to suspend operations.

CLERGYMAN JOINS.

Rev. Warren Wilson Admitted to Membership in Central Labor Union.

New York, March 20.—Rev. Warren Wilson has been admitted to membership in the Central Labor union of Brooklyn. He joined as a fraternal delegate and at the request of the Brooklyn presbytery, which has reached the conclusion that hitherto the church has not entered into fellowship with organized labor as it should have done. There was only one vote in opposition. The new delegate is pastor of the Arlington Avenue Presbyterian church. In an address following his election he said the presbytery believed the church had strayed from the divine teachings in not taking a deeper interest in the welfare of laboring men. He thought the church did not fully understand the objects of labor unions and believed the time at hand when it should be enlightened on these subjects.

TURBULENT TRIP.

Steamship Cedric Had Stormy Voyage
and Met Tremendous Seas.

New York, March 20.—More than three and a half days behind her best record time for a voyage, the big White Star line steamer Cedric came into port Monday after the most turbulent voyage of her career. From the outset of the voyage the Cedric encountered heavy weather, the force of the gales were terrific and at times assumed hurricane proportions, with tremendous seas. At times the seas broke more than twenty feet higher than the Cedric's bridge, and it is estimated to be sixty feet from hollow to crest. Her officers say that although the huge ship heeled and pitched violently, she behaved splendidly. In the most violent period, on March 12, Mrs. Whitney, a steerage passenger, gave birth to a child. He was named Cedric Whitney. Among the passengers on the Cedric was Jabez White, a British pugilist, and his manager, Charles Mitchell. White, it is said, will fight Jimmy Britt of San Francisco.

DISTRICT COURT.

Criminal Docket Called—Four Pleas of Guilty in Felony Cases.

The criminal docket was called in the district court yesterday, and the following jurors sworn in for the week: J. L. Sample, J. B. Carroll, W. D. Stallings, C. M. Risinger, A. B. McSwain, Sim Cooper, J. J. Riley, J. S. Smith; S. H. Sutton, J. W. Coulter, A. J. Tabor, Jr., J. F. Zack, A. W. Dyess, W. T. Horton, W. H. Dozier, W. F. Haygood, Antone Conrad, Jesse M. Moore, Sam Luther, W. T. James, W. I. McCullough, Walter Wilcox, J. D. Goen, I. J. Holligan, B. A. Huggins, W. B. Grice, H. H. Henry.

Four felony cases, all against negroes, were disposed of in short order, each prisoner promptly entering a plea of guilty, and after the verdict each one accepting sentence. The cases were as follows: Will Oneal, burglary, two years; Paul Wilson, theft of a mule, two years; Henry Woods, theft of a horse, two years; Will Robertson, burglary, two years.

BIG CARNIVAL HERE.

The Parker Amusement Company, consisting of about fifty people, arrived in Bryan yesterday, with a considerable portion of the show. There has been considerable delay to them on account of a wreck on the railway over which they were endeavoring to get here, and the company were not able to get the shows started yesterday, but say that they will give the people some first-class amusement when they get started.

The statement of the City National bank, appearing elsewhere, is one that upon analysis, shows up very creditably for the institution, also for the financial status of the city and county. The deposits of the bank are large, as are also the items showing cash on hand and to the credit of the bank, indicating safe and conservative banking.

The Eagle has received from Rev. E. L. Shettles an invitation to attend the opening of the magnificent new Methodist church he has built at Pittsburg, Texas. The date is Sunday, April 2.

Cabbage Plants—A wagon load from College will be on sale in front of Howell Bros. Wednesday morning at 9 o'clock.

It is certainly a pleasant surprise to learn that Jap-a-Lac, the famous floor finish and furniture rejuvenator, is sold at Haswell's bookstore.

FOR ALDERMAN.

Roger T. Boyle announced in Sunday's Eagle as a candidate for re-election as alderman of the city of Bryan. Mr. Boyle has held this office one term, and has served the people of Bryan in such a way that there can be no possible misunderstanding of what he stands for. He has taken the lead in movements for the betterment of the city's service in every way. He served as chairman of the committee on finance, and from this position of responsibility wielded an influence over the governmental affairs of Bryan that the Eagle believes the people of the town as a whole approve of, for it has been progressive, wide-awake, yet not extravagant nor wasteful. With this introduction, the Eagle calls the attention of the voters of Bryan to Mr. Boyle's announcement elsewhere in this paper.

FOR ALDERMAN.

Mr. J. B. Priddy's announcement for re-election as alderman of the city of Bryan appeared in last Sunday's Eagle. Mr. Priddy has served one term as alderman. Mr. Priddy is a careful, conscientious business man, and has served the city to the best of his ability—honestly and with clean hands. He submits his claims to the people for their judgment, and is willing to abide by the same, promising, if re-elected, to give the affairs of the city government his best attention.

ELECTION ORDINANCE.

Be it ordained by the City Council of the city of Bryan:

That an election for city officers, to-wit: Marshal, Secretary and three members of the city council, shall be held by the qualified voters of said city, at the city hall in Bryan on the first Tuesday in April next, it being the fourth day of said month; and the presiding officer, together with such others as he may appoint, shall hold said election in accordance with the city charter and ordinances and the state law governing elections.

Adopted by the city council and approved by the Mayor, this 17th day of January, 1905.
C. M. Spell, Mayor.

TO THE PEOPLE OF BRYAN.

Open Letter from Kind Hearted Ohioan.

The following letter will be of great interest to our readers. It breathes the true spirit of charity, of helping others. May it do the good that Mr. Carpenter hopes for.

To the People of Bryan:
Although I may be unknown to you, yet I hope my experience will carry the weight that earnestness always should. I believe in doing good to my fellow men, and in no way can I help them better than in pointing out the road to health.

Hyomel, the treatment that cures catarrh without stomach dosing, has done me so much good that I want everybody to know of its merits. I had a very bad case of catarrh, and Hyomel completely cured me. I have recommended it to my neighbors, and they, too, have been cured. Now I want everybody in all parts of the country to know what Hyomel has done for me.

George W. Carpenter,
Vincent, Ohio.

Hyomel contains the healing balsams that are found in the air upon the mountains, where catarrh is unknown. It destroys all catarrhal germs in the air passages of the head, throat and lungs, and makes complete cures.

A complete outfit costs but $1.00, while extra bottles can be obtained for 50c. Ask E. J. Jenkins to show you the strong guarantee under which he sells the treatment.

TERRIBLE EXPLOSION

Blowing Up of a Boiler Demolishes Part of Shee Factory.

NUMBER LOSE LIVES.

Grover Manufacturing Establishment at Brockton, Mass., the Scene of a Calamity Heartrending in Character.

Brockton, Mass., March 20.—A boiler exploded in the R. V. Grover shoe factory here this morning.

At 10:30 o'clock the fire was virtually under control, but owing to the great heat a search of the ruins at that time was impossible. The number of persons then missing was estimated at fifty. One hour later search for the dead and wounded was instituted and twenty-five bodies were soon recovered. Many of them were so badly mutilated and burned as to make identification difficult and in some cases impossible.

The entire Grover plant was destroyed by fire, which spread to adjoining business structures and private residences. The boiler which exploded was located on the ground floor in the ell part of the four-story wooden factory. When the explosion occurred that part of the factory directly above collapsed. A moment after the explosion fire broke out in the wreckage.

The financial loss is estimated at $200,000.

Two of the injured were taken to the Brockton hospital. They are Andrew Lundell, leg fractured and burned about face and hands, and Elmer H. Dolige, compound fracture of the leg and severely burned about face and hands.

The boiler which exploded was located on the ground floor of the ell which extended from the main building. In three stories of the ell were work rooms. Persons living near heard a dull roar and saw a cloud of smoke rising and the ell of the factory falling to the ground. Flames burst from the ruins, spreading quickly to the main structure, which in a few minutes was a roaring furnace. Most of the employees in the main part of the plant succeeded in escaping, although in the terrible panic which followed the explosion quite a number were injured.

The Grover factory is situated at the corner of Main and Calmar streets in the Campbell district, about a mile south of the city hall. The district is within the city limits of Brockton. A series of alarms summoned all the apparatus in the city and aid also was sent from near-by places. The heat of the fire was so intense that the work of the firemen and police was carried on under great difficulties. Their attention was chiefly given to the Grover building, especially to that part which was nearest the boiler house, and in the early stages of the fire a number of employees were extricated from the ruins. The flames, however, soon stopped rescue work. Tons of water were poured on the ell, but the fire from the main structure became too hot for effective work and the entire plant, with those who failed to escape, had to be abandoned. Meanwhile news of the accident reached the homes of the operatives and through the crowds already near the burning factory men and women were struggling wildly toward the center to get news of relatives, the cries of which were heard above the roaring flames. Women were frantic as they learned there was little hope for any one caught in the ell of the building.

When the flames reached Dahlburg's block even the firemen were obliged to retreat temporarily, and it was feared a large section of the district would be obliterated. The occupants of all these buildings had little time to save their effects. Some barely escaped themselves. Reinforced by the arrival of other apparatus, however, the department made a fresh attack and after a hard struggle succeeded in checking the flames.

At 10:30 Monday afternoon fire chief estimated death list at fifty.

In some cases nothing but framework of bones of corpses have been found.

CRISIS REACHED.

France Has Notified Venezuela Proceedings Must Stop.

Washington, March 20.—French cable company complications have reached a crisis and Minister Bowen has informed the state department that the French minister at Caracas, by instruction of his government, has notified the Venezuelan government there must be no further proceedings on its part toward cancellation of the company's franchise or interference with its property. Further, Mr. Bowen reports that two French warships have been ordered posthaste to Venezuelan waters to act in accordance with instructions of the French minister. These are the Julian Degraivier and Duplex, now in the Caribbean sea.

CUMMINGS NO MORE.

Noted Military Man Departs This Life at His Virginia Home.

Abingdon, Va., March 20.—General Arthur Campbell Cummings, a conspicuous character in Virginia's military history, died here, aged eighty-three years. He participated in the war with Mexico, was wounded by guerrillas in the march on the City of Mexico and was made brevet major for gallant conduct in that engagement. McFALL PASSES AWAY.

After an Illness of Twenty-One Days Dies at His Austin Home.

Austin, March 20.—After an illness of twenty-one days Hon. David A. McFall departed this life at noon Sunday. Of delicate constitution, an attack of grip settled in his heart, and for several days he hovered between life and death. Sunday morning he became unconscious.

Judge McFall, who was thirty-six years old, came to Austin from Tennessee with his family when six years of age, and this city has since been his home. He was educated in the public schools, graduated from the high school of Texas, was a member of the Twenty-third and Twenty-seventh legislatures, being a member of the lower house. In the last mentioned legislature he offered a resolution calling for the investigation of the commission of the Waters-Pierce Oil company into Texas. He also served one term as county judge of Travis county.

About three years ago he joined the county attorney in filing a number of anti-trust suits, among them a suit against the Kirby Lumber company, the dismissal of which last mentioned suit was the basis for the bribery indictments presented by the grand jury about a month ago. Judge McFall acted as assistant county attorney in representing the state before the grand jury upon that occasion and in the preparation of the indictments. Very shortly thereafter he was taken ill and was unable to attend court during the recent trial.

The fact that County Attorney Brady was with Judge McFall when the end came gave rise to the rumor that Judge McFall had made a dying statement concerning the cases. Mr. Brady declared that was not the case. He said that Judge McFall had not been permitted to read anything about the trial.

Mobile, March 20.—Mobile was visited Sunday by one of the hardest rain-falls of the year. city's history. After a brief address the governor, accompanied by his wife, entered their carriage, which had been almost filled with flowers by their admirers, and the carriage, drawn by about 100 most enthusiastic citizens headed by a brass band, proceeded to the governor's home. The route through the streets was a continuous ovation and when he reached home there was a crowd of intimate friends and neighbors to welcome him. To this gathering he made a short speech of thanks.

ADAMS' ADDRESS.

Says a Stolen Governorship Will Bring Only Reproach and Disaster.

Denver, March 20.—In a scathing address to the people of Colorado Hon. Alva Adams reviews the various steps in the contest by which he was ousted as governor. He says it was a dishonorable victory, dishonorably won. "Better a hundred times a private citizen than hold such an office by such a title. The stolen presidency added no luster to Rutherford B. Hayes. A stolen governorship will bring only reproach and disaster to Colorado and Republicanism. The theft is to the chief, and comes back most to him."

Demurrage Bill Signed.

Guthrie, March 20.—Governor Ferguson has signed the Noffsinger demurrage bill. Railroad men say it is a most drastic measure. It regulates demurrage and storage charges, prevents delays in furnishing cars and in the transportation and delivery of freight other than livestock and perishable freight.

Guthrie, March 20.—L. W. Baxter territorial superintendent of public instruction, called attention to the fact that Representative Lydick's bill, now a law, deals directly with trusts in connection with the sale of school supplies and more particularly school books in Oklahoma.
